WHITCOMBE'S STORY BOOKS

Early one morning Ann's doll, Bess, got out of bed and ran away. By and by she came home again. Ann was fast asleep and did not know anything about it. Here you see Bess getting into bed again after her adventure. The story of Bess is told in SHOPPING (No. 55, Kookaburra Series).

WHITCOMBE'S STORY BOOKS

These six little bears are feeling upset and all because of the Chip-Chop Man. He would chop down their trees with his big axe. They couldn't think what to do, so they asked the Gum-nut Witch to help them. She was a very clever witch and she soon thought of a good plan. You may read all about it in SIX LITTLE BEARS (No. 59, Kookaburra Series).
